MS No 8788

Room 2A

pārājikaṃ pāḷi-tō pāṭh

Handwritten text in a script, possibly Indic or Persian, on a central strip of aged paper. The text is arranged in two lines, with the first line being more legible than the second. The script appears to be a form of Devanagari or a related Indic script.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written on a single line across the page, with some words appearing to be in a different script or dialect than the main body of text. The handwriting is dense and somewhat difficult to decipher due to the cursive style and the age of the document. The text appears to be a continuous passage, possibly a letter or a record, with some words that might be in a different language or dialect, such as "Herrn" and "Herrn" visible in the middle section.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written on a single page and appears to be a continuous narrative or record. The script is dense and fills most of the page. There are some ink blots and variations in the ink color, suggesting it is an older document. The text is written in a single column and is not clearly legible due to the cursive style and fading.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written in a dark ink on aged, slightly discolored paper. It appears to be a continuous passage, possibly a letter or a record, with some lines starting with capital letters or initials. The script is dense and flowing, characteristic of early modern handwriting. There are some dark spots and stains on the paper, particularly in the center and towards the right side, which may be due to age or handling. The overall appearance is that of a well-preserved but aged historical document.
